Jefferson County Photo Club announces a presentation by eminent photographer, Frank Lee Ruggles of Great Falls, Virginia, on Tuesday, December 13 at 7:00 PM. The event will be held at the Fire Hall Gallery in the Visitor's Center at 108 North George St., Charles Town, WV.

Frank is a former National Park Service photographer and cares deeply about and is dedicated to helping preserve our public lands. The National Park Service Trust has named Frank as their National Artist Ambassador and the US Forest Service has named him National Artist in Residence.

He will soon start filming for a one hour TV special about photography in the National Parks for the Ovation Network. He has recently spent part of the NPS Centennial as a guest of Yosemite National Park photographing and preparing photos for a new coffee-table book about the park.

His work is shown in galleries in DC, New Hampshire, Ohio, South Carolina and California as well as licensed for sale in the NPS gift and book shops. In addition, he is a popular lecturer and workshop leader.

See his work on his website at <http://frankleeruggles.photoshelter.com/> Then come and enjoy meeting this energetic and adventurous landscape photographer and hear about his passion for preservation of our public lands at this free lecture.
