Minutes
October 12, 2021

Attendance:

John Kracke, Doug Allmond, Alice Newton, Mary Jo Bennett, Mike Keefe, Cherie Casari, Rip Smith, Ellen Hardesty and Eric Whitenton joined the group via Zoom. Cara Hannan joined us for the meeting.

Mary Jo Bennett has scheduled a trip on Saturday, the 16th, at the Shenandoah Planning Mill at Summit Point. Club members can meet there at 9 a.m.

Members will be hanging our Heiler Gallery exhibit on October 13 at 1 p.m. Alice Newton has finished the photo placards, Cara Hannan will bring name cards so the Old Opera guests can meet and mingle during the show intermissions. Doug Allmond, Mike Keefe, Ellen Hardesty and Mary Jo Bennett will be the hard work of hanging.

Show dates: October 15, 16, 17 & 22, 23, 24.

Club members are invited to stop by before the show (8 p.m.), during the intermission and to go upstairs and enjoy Agatha Christie's "A Murder is Announced"

Doug Allmond updated us on our trip Summit Point. The director is looking forward to the Club sharing some of the photos we take. There are several opportunities for some interesting shots. The Turkeybowl is November 19-20. Antique sports cars will be running on the track.

The Museum of the Shenandoah Valley in Winchester, VA ( <https://www.themsv.org/> ) is currently hosting an exhibit that you might enjoy. It is the "Photo Ark" which is a grouping of photographic images of wild life taken by National Geographic photographer, Joel Sartore. This show focuses on large scale intimate portraits of a variety of wild life.

The Museum is located at 901 Amherst St in Winchester. It is halfway between the downtown area and the Hospital complex. Admission is $10 for adults, $8 for senior and kids over 12. Hours are 10 AM to 5 Tues . thru Sun. Masks are required in the Museum galleries. Every Wednesday, admission is free for everyone. Be sure to take your camera as the adjacent gardens are a real treat.

Another field trip possibility is Lucketts. It is a small town located just North of Leesburg on Rt. 5. It has many antique shops with much to photo.

John Kracke will post our Heiler Gallery exhibit information in various places.
